Join by One Tap Mobile

Here are some tips for joining a Zoom meeting using the one tap mobile feature to dial in.

These tips are for dialing in on an iPhone. If you want to join from a smartphone app or from a computer, check out the other workshops in the Zoom series. Try it out.

Entering the Meeting

1. Open the email with information about the Zoom meeting.
2. Find the text that says One tap mobile. Just below that is a link. Tap on the link, or, if you're using Voiceover, double-tap.

Tip: This will be the second blue link in your invitation, and it will start with a plus followed by a lot of numbers.

3. A message on the screen will ask you to confirm that you really want to dial this long string of numbers. If you change your mind, there's a Cancel button at the bottom of the screen.
4. To dial, tap where it says Call. If you're using VoiceOver, double-tap.
5. You'll be prompted to type in the meeting ID followed by the pound key. But the app automatically inputs the meeting ID number for you. You'll hear the number being dialed.
6. Then you'll be asked for your participant ID, but you don't need to provide this. Just press the pound key (#), and you'll enter the meeting.

Muting/Unmuting

7. Zoom announces whether you're muted or unmuted.

8. If you're muted, you can unmute yourself by pressing the star key (*) and then the number 6. You can then mute and unmute yourself by using star key + 6.

Raising Your Hand

Some meetings are informal, and you can unmute yourself and speak when you like. But for a large meeting, the host may mute everyone. So you'll need to notify the host when you have something to say:

9. Press the star key (*) and then the number 9 to raise your hand.
10. When the host calls on you, they will either unmute you or ask you to unmute yourself. So be ready to select 6.

Tip: When you join using one tap mobile, you are unable to put your hand down. The host lowers your hand after you've spoken.

Just to recap, star 6 mutes and unmutes, and star 9 raises your hand.

Leaving the Meeting

When you're ready to leave, just hang up to end the call.
